Absorbers Of Cash.

As an absorbant of cash the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis bids fair to outclass every enterprise held in this country of a similar char-

The initial appropriation of $10,000, 000 was provided by St. Louis, 50 per cent, of which was raised by private subscription and the other by the issue of municipal bonds. Congress voted a donation of $5,000,000 more and the government has expended an additional $2,000,000 for various and sundry expenses connected with the expositson and which includes the cost of constructing a building for government exhibits of a national character.

With all this the fair managers have just secured another $4,000,000 from the government by giving a mortgage upon the gate receipts, which brings the total amount of cash up to date, used for the exposition, to $21,000,000, a colossal sum under the circumstances

There are two other expositions under way, both of which are asking for government support, and if each is to be aided by the government in propor tion to the aid it has given to St. Louis it will soon be necessary to restore the war taxes.

Three Words of Strength.

There are three lessons I would write, Three words with a burning pen, In traces of eternal light Upon the Learts of men.

Have Hope. Though clouds environ round,

And gladness hides her face in scorn No night but hath its morn.

Have faith. Where'er the bark is driven. The calm's disport, the tempest's mirth. Know this, God rules the host of Heaven, The inhabitants of earth.

Have love. Not love alone for one; But man, as man, thy brother call, And scatter, like the circling sun, Thy charities on all.

Thus grave these lessons on thy soul,

Strength when life's surges rudest roll. Light when thou else wert bilnd.

To The Voters of the Fifth Appellate Court District of Kentucky.

I am a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals from this district, subject to the action of the democratic party. As circuit judge, it became my duty to try a number of criminal cases, which have become a part of the State's history and at a most critical time. As judge of the State fiscal court, it fell to my lot to construe the Statutes adopted, to put in force the provisions of the new constitution, as well as to construe the present constitution whenever a controversy arose as to its proper construction. Almost innumerable cases have burdened the dockets of my court, touching the rights of corporations and the exercise of tranchises under the law. How well I have discharged my duties under such trying circumstances, is left to you to determine.

I will be very grateful to all who feel they can assist me to secure the high position and office to which I aspire.

Very respectfully, JAMES E CANTRILL.
